V. MODE OF CONDUCTING THE CHIT AND ASCERTAINING THE PRIZED SUBSCRIBER :

The foreman shall exibit a list of non-prized subscribers before every auction.

1. The Subscriber who is to get the prize amount at any instalment shall be determined by lot or by auction at the time and place specified in Article-III. The time allowed for auction shall be five minutes from the commencement of the proceedings. Only full tickets have been subscribed and there is no fraction of the ticket. The proceedings will be regulated and conducted by the Foreman or his authorised employee and in all cases of dispute, the decision of the Foreman/ authorised employee will be final. The Auction that start from the Foreman's Commission of 5% of chit value and bidders may, in auction, raise discount to the maximum of 35 percent of the chit value. Each time the bid shall be raised by rupees hundred or multiples thereof. Written bid offers which are not in hundreds or multiples thereof are liable to be rejected. The Non- prized subscriber, who bids at the highest discount, not exceeding the above specified maximum, will be declared by lot among such bidders. Only the subscribers or their authorised person/proxies will be allowed to take part in auction. Such authorisation shall be in writing.
2. A Non-prized Subscriber, who cannot personally participate in the auction, may send his authorised agent or forward to the Foreman a bid offer stating the maximum amount of discount he is willing to offer which must be received by the Foreman at least one day before the concerned auction date. Defaulted Subscribers will not be allowed to participate in the auction. No out sider shall be permitted to participate in the auction. Chits which have been given as security for other prized chits will not be allowed to be auctioned without written consent from the Foreman.
3. Any non-prized subscriber, who wishes to take part in the auction, is entitled to do so within the five minutes time limit fixed. The auction shall not be confirmed and concluded before the close of this time limit. In such auction, when no bidder forthcoming, a lot will be drawn from the non-prized subscribed at the close of 5 minutes and such subscriber drawn by lot will be declared as prize subscribe and he is entitled to receive the chit amount for the ticket less the foreman's Commission.

VI. MODE OF PAYMENT OF EACH INSTALMENT AND/ OR PENALTY FOR BELATED PAYMENTS.

Each and every subscriber shall pay to the Foreman the amount due for his ticket for each instalment on or before the due date of each such auction and shall get a receipt from the office. Where payments are made by cheque, they should be cashed well before the due date of payment. Only after the realisation of the cheques, the subscriber shall get the eligibility to participate in the auction. Subscribers should include bank service charges to outstation cheques. All cheques and draft should be set duly crossed as A/c payee. If realisation of the cheque is unduly delayed, the subscriber should pay the cash against such cheque whenever Foreman insisted. If any cheque delivered by the subscriber is returned unpaid, cheque return charges fixed by Foreman and other bank charges shall be paid by the subscriber and in future only DD/cash shall be accepted from such subscribers. The subscribers are advised to collect valid receipt after depositing cash/delivering DD/ cheque and thereafter get it entered in the respective Pass Book. They are advised not to write anything of their own in the Pass Book.

Non receipt of the intimation by the Subscriber should not be the valid reason for not paying the subscription, every Subscriber must pay the instalments on or before the due date.

1) Non-prized Subscriber fails to deposit his/her monthly subscription before the due date, an interest shall be charged @ 15% per annum. If default continues for more than two months, the subscriber will not be entitled to dividends in addition to the aforesaid interest charges. A subscriber who has not made upto-date payments of all the instalments due from him/her, will not be permitted to bid in the Auction.
If a Non-prized subscriber fails to pay subscription for three consecutive instalments, he shall be liable to be removed from the list of Subscriber and the Foreman, at his option, shall be entitled to substitute a new Subscriber in place of defaulting Subscriber or may himself subscribe for the ticket and the defaulted ticket of the chit will be dealt with in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Chit funds Act.
The Foreman, at his discretion, can waive the interest partly or fully and also can postpone the removal of membership in suitable and deserving cases.
A removed subscriber, not substituted, may be re-admitted on such terms as the Foreman deems proper. A removed subscriber is entitled to the amount actually subscribed by him, i.e., exclusive of dividends less 5% of the chit amount towards damages for breach of contract. This amount is payable on application at the end of the chit period from earlier, if the vacancy is substitute.

2) Prized Subscriber :-
When a Prized subscriber defaults in payment of subscription amount an interest @ 18% per annum shall be charged. If the default is continued consecutively for a period of 3 months, the prized subscribers will not be entitled to dividends and the benefit of paying the future subscriptions in instalments. The prized subscribers and their sureties shall become liable to make a consolidated payment of all the future subscriptions inclusive of the defaulted instalments with interest @ 18% per annum from the date of default, apart from the Legal expenses involved.

VII. PROCEDURE FOR RECEIVING THE PRIZE AMOUNT BY A PRIZED SUBSCRIBER:

1) The prize amount will be paid to the Prized Subscriber at the Foreman's office during office hours on working days through a crossed A/c-Payee cheque. This will be done within one month of his/her furnishing sufficient security for the due payment of future instalments and the security on inspection, security etc., found to the satisfaction of the Foreman.
